

Safe Behavior Recommendations

While the bluff feels far removed from the urban hustle, it's wise to remember that LMU is still located in the nation's second largest metropolis. A few common reminders go a long way in promoting a safe campus for all Lions.

- In an emergency, always call 9-1-1 before anyone else.
- Save LMU Public Safety's number in your cell phone: 310.338.2893. Public Safety is available 24/7/365. You can also dial x222 from any campus landline.
- Immediately report all instances of sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, and dating/domestic violence to Public Safety.
- Inform Public Safety of all restraining orders, no contact orders, and any other court orders.
- Download Rave Guardian, LMU's customized safety mobile app. You'll be able to text discreetly with Public Safety to report incidents and get help, use the "Watch Me Walk" feature for added security getting home at night, and access important campus resources.
- Student Psychological Services provides support resources, wellness programming, consultation, and confidential therapy for individuals, couples, and groups. Call 310.338.2868.
- Student Health Services promotes physical health and wellness. Call 310.338.2881 for resources.
- Check out Public Safety's Campus Life Safety Tips and watch this video produced by LMU SFTV on how to protect yourself and your belongings.
- Utilize LMU CARES resources, including self defense workshops, online tools, and more.
- Remember: always use the buddy system, and walk with a friend!
